

Fountain Publisher Ltd distributes 'Born to Dance' in Hong Kong

Hong Kong, June 30, 2009

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

HONG KONG, S.A.R. June 30, 2009 - Born to Dance, the children fiction novel, will be launched at the 2009 Hong Kong Book Fair and will be available in most Hong Kong bookstores thereafter.

Author, Katherine Reynolds, represented by the Sherna Khambatta Literary Agency reached at her home in England, expressed her delight that her award-winning children's novel, 'BORN TO DANCE', will be made available to school children in Hong Kong S.A.R. through a distribution agreement with Hong Kong publisher, Fountain Publisher Ltd.

Described as 'a welcome burst of sunshine in the world of children's fiction', 'BORN TO DANCE' follows the adventures of Dylan de Polka, a tap-dancing horse, in his quest to realize his fondest dreams.

Dylan is joined by a colourful cast of characters: a worldly-wise ginger cat called Red Tabby, Irma the Elephant, Ranga Orang-utan, the Meerkat Clowns, Marmaduke Monkey, Ringmaster Chia, Madame Lulu Bombazine, Pop Star Lord Stomper, and many more. For the setting of her tale, Katherine says she has drawn inspiration from the gently rolling countryside of Somerset where she writes and makes her home.

'Making the richness of English language available to young people, whatever might be their first language, is something I feel passionate about,' says Katherine. 'Words are the wings of the imagination.' She has just completed 'SAFE FOR LIFE', the sequel to her first book. 'SAFE FOR LIFE' will be published in the UK in September 2009. Her agreement with Fountain is a first for Katherine outside the UK, and allows Fountain to step into the role of publisher for "BORN TO DANCE" for much of South East Asia.
