Are our dreams an escape from reality or are they a bridge to a completely different universe? The Dreamer's Awakening, the latest juvenile/young adult fantasy novel by Sebastian Levek and Martin Bois spans this great divide, shedding light on vastly unexplored worlds beyond our consciousness.

Ever since he can remember, 17-year-old Eloik MacMillan has suffered terrifyingly real nightmares. Tormented and guilt-ridden by his fears, teased and bullied by his peers, Eloik wants nothing more than to be left alone...

But he will unwittingly go from outsider to insider to play a key role in an epic battle which will determine the ultimate fate of the universe. With his newfound Dreamrider friends Janika, Dylan and Nilianna, he must now confront K uw rsha, the Queen of Nightmares, Widow-with-a-Thousand-Faces, whose relentless goal is to rule supreme over the dream world and the unconscious mind. If she succeeds, it will be the end of humankind...

This is the captivating story which readers 12 years and older can look forward to in Eloik: The Dreamer's Awakening. A best seller in its original French version, The Dreamer's Awakening is now published in English by Fountain Publisher.

The Dreamer's Awakening is available at Amazon.com, BarnesAndNoble.com, BooksAMillion.com, and all good bookstores. The first two chapters are freely available online at www.fountainpublisher.com/eloikmain.html
